

Schenck, Price, Smith & King, LLP is very pleased to celebrate the commencement of its second century with a new location at 220 Park Avenue, Florham Park, Morris County, New Jersey. A leading New Jersey law firm since 1912, SPS&K remains deeply committed to serving its clients throughout New Jersey, New York and Pennsylvania, and continuing its active engagement in the greater Morris and Bergen County communities where our New Jersey offices are located. It is this dedication and excitement about the next 100 years that leads SPS&K to new, updated, efficient, and accessible headquarters. SPS&K will continue to provide excellent legal expertise and knowledge to its clients from a facility just off several major thoroughfares and featuring state-of-the-art technology and easy parking and access for all individuals. All members of the SPS&K community look forward to introducing you to their new office in March of 2010.
