

Diversity

Schenck, Price, Smith & King, LLP (Schenck Price) is committed to advancing a diverse and inclusive workplace that includes individuals of various ethnicities, cultures, races, national origins, ages, religions, disabilities, sexual orientations or identities, political affiliations and veteran status. The Schenck Price Diversity and Inclusion Committee – consisting of one representative each from the management committee, marketing committee, recruiting committee, diversity initiative and women’s initiative -- was created to ensure that diversity remains an integral part of our continued success and service to our clients.
