

Schenck Price Women's Initiative

Schenck, Price, Smith & King, LLP is committed to the advancement of women in the workplace and in furtherance of this commitment the Firm formed the Schenck Price Women's Initiative. The Schenck Price Women's Initiative is a platform for the Firm's women attorneys to advance both professionally and personally. The mission of the Schenck Price Women's Initiative includes the following: (i) to promote the professional development of women through mentoring, education and advocacy; (ii) to recognize outstanding women professionals; (iii) to encourage both the attraction and the retention of women attorneys; (iv) to provide networking opportunities for women professionals; and (v) to support communities and charities in New Jersey.

The Schenck Price Women's Initiative meets bimonthly to discuss topics of note, host speakers, plan events, and network.

Schenck, Price,
Smith & King
is committed to the advancement of women in the law and within the firm.

Back row, left to right: Divya Srivastav-Seth, Katherine Gilfillan, Julie Gendel, Cynthia Flanagan, Wendy Greenwood, Amy Buck Faundez, Olga Kats-Chalfant, Valerie Vladyka, Meghan Hoppe, Crystal West Edwards, Sharmila Jaipersaud, Sandra Calvert Nathans, Alison Kenny, Robin Ballard
Front row, left to right: Wynne Whitman, Farah Ansari, Shirley Whitenack, Meredith Grocott, Deborah Cmielewski, Joanne Butler
Not pictured: Dana Ferrera, Heidi Hoffman-Shalloo, J. Nicole Knox, Regina Spielberg