Schenck, Price, Smith & King LLP Of Counsel Attorney Featured in Law360 Pulse

~ Jay Helverson Interviewed on joining fast growing firm and expanding their international tax practice ~

Florham Park, NJ - Schenck, Price, Smith & King LLP is pleased to announce Frank J. Helverson ("Jay") was interviewed by Law360 Pulse regarding his recent move to the firm.

Helverson shared with the publication that he was drawn to Schenck Price's "pragmatic culture," which helped solidify his decision to join the firm. While currently serving as a leading member of the firm's international tax team, Helverson noted that he plans to grow and expand the practice into the future. Helverson's expertise and vision aligns with Schenck Price's substantial growth and commitment to excellence.

Helverson further notes that he has been working with Schenck Price informally for years, and says of the affiliation, "Schenck Price is very stable; the partners I work with are fantastic, so it really lines up well with my clients." Helverson told Law360 that he is already receiving very positive feedback from his clients, which reinforces his belief that the move was right for his practice.

John E. Ursin, Managing Partner of Schenck Price, state that he was pleased to see new coverage of the addition of Jay Helverson to SPSK. Jay has a very sophisticated area of expertise that will benefit many of our clients. It is a big step forward in the continuing drive of Schenck Price to grow to provide its clients with efficient full service at a very high level.
