Schenck, Price, Smith & King LLP Pleased To Welcome New Associate to Firm

-Law firm continues remarkable growth surge in both practice areas and people-

Florham Park, NJ -- Schenck, Price, Smith & King LLP is pleased to announce Melanie M. Andreas has joined the Firm as an Associate in Schenck Price's Litigation Practice Group, where she handles a diverse range of matters involving employment litigation, products liability, probate and estate administration, commercial litigation, and environmental law. Melanie is the latest hire as Schenck Price spreads its dynamic footprint throughout the state.

Prior to joining Schenck Price, Melanie was an Associate at a boutique civil litigation firm, where she focused on civil matters, probate and estate administration, and appellate advocacy. After law school, Melanie served as a Law Clerk to the Honorable Robert J. Gilson, Presiding Judge of the Appellate Division, where she researched, analyzed, and helped draft opinions on complex civil, criminal, family, and administrative matters.

Melanie is admitted to practice law in New Jersey. She earned her J.D. from Seton Hall University and her B.A., with first class honors and distinction, in Political Science from McGill University.

John E. Ursin, Esq., Managing Partner, commented that Melanie is a great addition to the department. She has an impressive academic background and had a very valuable clerkship with a great Judge. She will immediately be a valuable resource in the department. Melanie is obviously very smart, and she is motivated to develop as a litigator. I am looking forward to Melanie having a long and successful career here at Schenck Price.

During law school, Melanie clerked at a civil litigation firm in Florham Park, where she researched and prepared memoranda on novel legal issues arising at both the state and federal levels. After her first year of law school, Melanie served as a Judicial Extern to the Honorable Michael L. Ravin, J.S.C., in the Superior Court of New Jersey, Law Division, Criminal Part.
