Schenck, Price, Smith & King LLP Pleased To Welcome New Partner to Firm

"Law firm is continuing extraordinary growth surge in both practice areas and people~

Florham Park, NJ - Schenck, Price, Smith & King LLP is pleased to announce Owen J. Lipnick has joined the Firm as a Partner in their Commercial Litigation Practice Group.

Owen brings more than 20 years' experience to the firm, representing clients in a variety of sophisticated commercial, banking, consumer finance, real estate, unfair competition, employment, bankruptcy, insurance, corporate/partnership, fraud, and contract dispute matters.

He has practiced in federal and state courts in both New Jersey and New York and represented clients in arbitrations and administrative proceedings. Owen has successfully litigated matters from beginning to conclusion. He has obtained emergency injunctions necessary for preserving clients' businesses as well as several favorable summary judgment rulings deciding matters without trials. His clients broadly range from financial institutions, real estate developers, and other large companies to individuals mired in shareholder disputes and other legal predicaments. Owen prides himself on achieving cost-effective and practical solutions through skilled problem-solving tailored to his client's needs and objectives.

Owen is admitted to multiple Bars in the State and Federal Courts of New Jersey and New York.

John E. Ursin, Esq., Managing Partner, commented that Owen is another great addition to the firm. He has a tremendous amount of complex litigation knowledge and experience and is well respected by both Judges and adversaries. He adds another layer of depth to the litigation department's capabilities. Equally important is the fact that he is a good person and is well respected in the community. He will be a great fit at the firm. We are looking forward to working with him.

In addition to this legal practice, Owen is a past Vice President of the Board of Trustees and Finance Committee Chair of the Unity Charter School. He organized and participated in projects raising money to find causes for Sudden Unexplained Death in Children, where he started his own non-profit corporation. Prior to becoming a lawyer, Owen achieved success on another "court," leading the Rutgers University Tennis team as its captain and #1 singles player.

Owen earned his J.D. from George Washington University and received his B.A. in Political Science from Rutgers College.

Prior to joining Schenck Price, Owen was an attorney at Bergen and Essex County firms. For several years, Owen was also an Assistant General Counsel and Vice President of JPMorgan Chase Bank, where he helped direct and manage the Bank's mortgage litigation, focusing on its appellate litigation, and defended the Bank in various consumer finance litigation matters.

For more information on the firm, please contact John E. Ursin, Esq., Managing Partner; Chair, Marketing and Business Development Committee at jeu@spsk.com or 973-295-3673.
