Schenck, Price, Smith & King LLP Pleased To Welcome New Counsel To Firm

“Law firm is continuing notable growth surge in both practice areas and people~

Florham Park, NJ - Schenck, Price, Smith & King LLP is pleased to announce Shane Warmington has joined the Firm as Counsel in its Community Association Practice Group.

Shane concentrates his practice on community association law, with a particular focus on litigation and collections. His addition reflects the Firm’s continued strategic growth and commitment to providing sophisticated legal services to community associations throughout New Jersey.

Shane represents condominium and homeowners’ associations in a broad range of legal matters, including enforcement of governing documents, covenant compliance, dispute resolution, lien enforcement, foreclosure proceedings, and collections. Drawing on his experience as the former head of a Collections Department, he has successfully managed high-volume delinquency matters and developed effective recovery strategies that help associations protect their financial interests.

In addition to his collections practice, Shane regularly counsels’ boards of directors, providing practical, business-oriented legal guidance on operational and governance matters. He is experienced in drafting and negotiating contracts, preparing amendments to governing documents, and assisting associations in navigating complex legal and compliance issues.

He is admitted to the New Jersey, New York, Pennsylvania, and District Court of New Jersey bars.

According to John E. Ursin, Esq., Managing Partner, the firm is very pleased to have Shane join our Community Association practice group. His decades of experience and client relationships will certainly accelerate the growth of this group at Schenck Price. In addition to being a skilled attorney, Shane has a very professional, happy demeanor and will fit seamlessly into the Schenck Price culture.

Shane earned his J.D. from American University Washington College of Law. During law school, he served as a Student Attorney in the Asylum Clinic, representing asylum seekers and providing mentorship and support to at-risk adolescents in juvenile detention. His work reflected a strong commitment to advocacy, public service, and community engagement. Shane holds a B.S., from The Richard Stockton College of New Jersey.

For more information on the firm, please contact John E. Ursin, Esq., Managing Partner; Chair, Marketing and Business Development Committee at jeu@spsk.com or 973-295-3673.

ABOUT SCHENCK, PRICE, SMITH & KING:

Schenck, Price, Smith & King is a full-service law firm with offices in Northern New Jersey and Manhattan, serving closely held, growing companies. For 112-plus years, Schenck Price has represented commercial businesses, individuals, public institutions and charitable organizations with excellence and integrity. We are proud that, in addition to their expertise and experience as legal practitioners, our attorneys have served in positions of leadership in public institutions, as well as community and charitable organizations.

Founded in 1912 as a two-person law firm in Morristown, Schenck Price has entered its second century of service as a firm of 80+ attorneys, serving virtually all legal needs of businesses and individuals. Our Firm's long history of legal excellence in the areas of health care, education, construction, trust and estate planning, corporate law, real estate, insurance defense, banking and commercial litigation, has expanded as the Firm has grown. Our areas of practice also include telecommunications, technology, environmental law, corporate governance, labor and employment law, and family law. Many of our attorneys have been recognized as leaders in their respective practice areas.
