Florham Park, NJ -- Schenck, Price, Smith & King LLP is pleased to announce Taylor Green has joined the Firm as an Associate in Schenck Price's Litigation Practice Group, where she handles a diverse range of civil litigation matters, including commercial litigation and general insurance defense.

During law school, Taylor served as a Senior Editor of the Seton Hall Law Review and as a member of the Appellate Advocacy Moot Court Board. She served as a judicial extern to the Hon. Michael A. Hammer, Magistrate Judge for the U.S. District Court for the District of New Jersey, and as a legal extern in the Criminal Division of the U.S. Attorney's Office for the District of New Jersey.

During her final year of law school, Taylor participated in the Criminal Defense and Community Advocacy Clinic, where she represented juvenile clients in delinquency proceedings under attorney supervision. Her clinic team received the Clinical Legal Education Association's Outstanding Clinic Team Award. Taylor received the Best Oral Advocate Award for the Appellant in her Appellate Advocacy course.

In 2024, Taylor was a summer associate at Schenck Price.

After graduating, Taylor served as a Law Clerk to the Hon. Jennifer McAndrew Vuotto.

John E. Ursin, Esq., Managing Partner, said that it is always great to see someone who spent time at the firm as an intern return as an attorney. Taylor stood out in her summer at SPSK as very intelligent, hardworking, and a good team player. She clearly enjoyed her judicial clerkship, and we will benefit from the experience she gained. I am looking forward to her having a long successful career here at Schenck Price.

Taylor earned her J.D. from Seton Hall University, cum laude and her B.A. in Business Management with a minor in Legal Studies from Quinnipiac University.
